The Rosalynn Carter Institute for Caregiving
Dealing with Dementia Trainer Class
June 20-21, 2019

The class will be held in the Pope Learning Center at RCI's headquarters on the campus of Georgia Southwestern State University in Americus, Georgia.

The DWD Trainer Class is a two-day class requiring candidate’s full attendance to achieve designation.

The fee for the class is $250.

Each trainer candidate will receive the DWD Trainer Manual and a copy of the DWD Guide at no extra cost. All travel, lodging and meal expenses are the responsibility of the trainer candidate.

Benefits of becoming a designated DWD Trainer:

- You will be empowered to facilitate workshops for both family caregivers and direct care workers caring for people living with dementia.
- You will be added to the DWD Registry on the RCI Website (currently under reconstruction).
- Your workshops will be listed on the DWD Calendar on the RCI Website (upon request).
- Only DWD Trainers and RCI REACH caregiver coaches have exclusive access to purchase the DWD Guide.

DWD Trainer Candidates seeking the designation of DWD Trainer must:

- Have at least one experience (personally or professionally) with dementia caregiving.
- Have at least one year experience in public speaking or leading, facilitating or teaching in adult education settings.
- Commit to delivering the DWD Workshops with fidelity to content and delivery parameters.
- Commit to holding two workshops within one year of the training (first workshop must be held within four months). DWD Trainers must also send all required documentation back to RCI within two weeks of the workshops. These MUST be sent by UPS or FedEx so that the shipment may be tracked.
