

Case Manager Dementia Training Post-Training Evaluation: Module 6

- 1) What percentage of caregivers of people with Alzheimer's and related dementias report their emotional stress as high or very high?
- a) 45%
 - b) 60%
 - c) 82%
- 2) Check all that are included in the 10 Warning Signs of Caregiver Stress, Depression, and Fatigue:
- 1) denial
 - 2) anger
 - 3) health problems
- 3) Caregivers of persons with dementia . . . (check all that apply)
- a) often struggle with understanding that they must change their expectations of the person with dementia
 - b) should always be strongly encouraged to accept respite services
 - c) may find support in non-traditional ways
- 4) Helping families with their roles as caregivers of persons with dementia may result in: (check all that apply)
- a) reducing hospitalizations
 - b) delaying institutionalization
 - c) families requesting fewer services
- 5) The following statements are true of the Alzheimer's Association (Check all that apply.)
- a) a Language Line is available if an interpreter is needed on a call.
 - b) services are offered on a sliding scale.
 - c) the MedicAlert/Safe Return program helps with locating a person with dementia who has wandered.
- 6) How many offices does the Alzheimer's Association have in Georgia?
- a) 3
 - b) 5
 - c) 7
- 7) The Alzheimer's Association Helpline (check all that apply)
- a) is available 24/7.
 - b) involves both national and local Georgia offices.
 - c) is only available in Georgia
- 8) An Alzheimer's Care Consultation may be provided on the phone or in person.
- a) True
 - b) False
- 9) Case Managers are encouraged to support LGBT persons and caregivers in (check all that apply)
- a) making appropriate legal and financial plans.
 - b) explaining how an early diagnosis of dementia makes it possible for the person with dementia to participate in planning.
 - c) respecting their definition of who is "immediate family."
- 10) Alzheimer's disease affects (check all that apply)
- a) adult caregivers
 - b) children in the home
 - c) the whole family