

Finding Quality Care – Evaluating Services for your Loved One

A Telephone Learning Series session from the Rosalynn Carter Institute for Caregiving

Thursday, March 20
2 p.m. EDT

The public is invited to take advantage of the FREE session, which will help listeners evaluate services for loved ones who need senior care and/or housing.

Participants will obtain tools and resources to help them make informed choices regarding nursing homes, assisted living homes, retirement communities, Alzheimer's facilities, or home health agencies.

Those registering for the session will receive a toll-free number and access code to use on March 20. After the presentation, listeners will have the opportunity to ask questions.

Registration is open until 12 noon on March 20. Registrants will be able to download handouts from the Rosalynn Carter Institute website.

Register online at www.rosalynncarter.org/register/ or call 229-931-2707.

Coming in April:
The April Telephone Learning Series
session is entitled
Traumatic Brain Injury: Caregiver Information and Support.
It is scheduled for Tuesday, April 8.
More details to come.

The Presenter

Robert A. Liebreich is the CEO and Co-Founder of seniorDECISION, Inc. He also serves as a Director of Marketing and Sales for a top 50 senior housing provider.

A graduate of Georgetown University with a double degree in Marketing and International Business, he obtained his MBA through Johns Hopkins University's Senior Care and Housing Program.

Following the frustrating experience of helping his grandmother with her senior care decisions, Rob entered the senior living industry with the belief more could be done to help people find answers to the issues surrounding senior care and housing,

Rob and his wife, Jennifer, a former senior advocate, founded seniorDECISION in 2007.
