

Identifying and Responding to Dementia Issues during Assessment and Care Management

1. The Blessed Orientation-Memory-Concentration Test asks that the client count backwards. True
2. Two interventions an interviewer can do to facilitate an assessment are 1.) Reduce test anxiety and 2.) Therapeutic positioning. True
3. Thyroid problems are an example of a non-reversible dementia. False
4. Two reasons for obtaining an early dementia diagnosis are 1.) Unaddressed safety issues and 2.) Victimization. True
5. Two telephonic assessment tools are 1.) SLUMS, and 2.) RUDAS. False
6. The Geriatric Depression Scale cannot be administered telephonically. False
7. The DON-R tests a person's ability to use the telephone and being alone. True
8. Two barriers to getting an accurate assessment are 1.) Anosognosia and 2.) Family denial. True
9. Two of the five testing rules are 1.) Don't finish sentences and 2.) Don't reword questions. True
10. Building a relationship with your clients include putting a smile in your voice and remaining non-judgmental. True