

Candidate	Caregiving	Respite Care	Long-Term Care (LTC)
Donald Trump (Republican)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Signed the RAISE Family Caregivers Act • Continued to proclaim November "National Family Caregivers Month" 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • No active campaign proposals 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • No active campaign proposals
Joseph Biden (Democrat)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Supports passage of the Caregiver Advise, Record, and Enable Act • Allow caregivers to make "catch-up" contributions to retirement accounts 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Supports increased funding and access to respite care (no specific detail) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Proposes a $5,000 tax credit for informal caregivers for LTC • Committed to maintaining Medicaid benefits for LTC
Bernie Sanders (Democrat)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Proposes a Social Security caregiver credit to those ending or reducing work hours to care for a loved one • Proposes caregiver training and paid family leave and sick time for domestic and family caregivers 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Supports improving the VA Comprehensive Caregiver program to include respite care, allowing veterans and their families time to care for themselves • Supports a national entitlement for in-home respite care for all people with disabilities and families who desire it 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Includes home-based, long-term care as part of Medicare for All (no specific detail)